

Historical Resources Division
Citrus County Clerk of the Court

GUIDE TO THE ARCHIVES AND COLLECTIONS

The Historical Resources Division is responsible for collecting, preserving and making available the historical public records of Citrus County. These historical records are held in the archive vault in the County's Historic Courthouse. In addition, the Division also manages non-government records such as organizational records, family and personal papers, photographs, diaries, maps, newspapers, oral histories and a large vertical file containing information on Citrus County. It also manages an extensive museum collection of objects and artifacts that document and interpret Citrus County history.

The Division's mission is to develop appropriate programs to acquire, preserve, interpret and exhibit materials which reflect the heritage of Citrus County, its people, places and events, and communities and surrounding area. The Division achieves this through its management, under the direction of the Citrus County Clerk of Courts, of the Citrus County Archives and Special Collections.

This finding aid is arranged by the large collecting areas of the Archives and Special Collections,

1. Public Records, including the records of the Clerk, Sheriff, Tax Collector, Property Appraiser, and City of Inverness Tax Collection. County Public Records are arranged under the constitutional officer and then, in the case of the Clerk of the Court, by functional areas;
2. Private Organizational/Business Records;
3. Individual/Family Papers;
4. Newspapers/Print Materials, Maps;
5. Oral Histories;
6. Citrus County Historical Society Photographs; and
7. Vertical Files

4. Newspapers, Print Materials and Maps

Back Home, Hampton Dunn, 1st edition

Citrus County Star – this newspaper preceded the Citrus County Chronicle and was published in the temporary county seat of Mannfield. This newspaper was published for only a few years. In 1888 the cost of the newspaper was five cents a copy or $1.50 year. The editor was B.H. Williams, on their office on Homosassa Ave. Mannfield, Florida. Dates include 1/21, 1/25- 3/10, 3/24, 4/07, 4/28- 5/19, 6/09- 7/14/1888 – 9/5/1889. The originals are housed in the Citrus County Archives and are available on microfilm at the county archives and the University of Florida, George A. Smathers Libraries.

Citrus County Chronicle – the archives house a large collection of Citrus County Chronicle newspapers. Included in this collection are loose editions of the newspaper from as early as 1908. However, the newspaper began publication in 1895. The county archives do not have any issues between 1895-1906 or 1916-1920. Beginning with 1921-1927 bound issues of the Chronicle are housed in the Archives however there are many issues from those years not included in these bound issues. Then in 1928 there are individual bound issues for each year through 1975. Housed in the archives are five rolls of microfilm containing Citrus County Chronicle newspapers between 1931-1939, 1942 and 1943. These rolls of film are also available at the University of Florida. Researchers interested in the more current issues of the Chronicle may access microfilm at the Lakes Region Library beginning in 1939 with intermit issues through 1941, and then January 1945 through October 2000. The University of Florida houses copies of the newspaper from the above mentioned dates along the same dates January 1945 through present that the Lakes Region Library houses.

Chronicle Press Sentinel – the Chronicle Press Sentinel was a spin off of the Citrus County Chronicle published for the news from the west side of Citrus County. The archives only house three years, bounded issues as follows: April 8, 1973 to Dec. 30, 1973, January 6, 1974 to Dec. 29, 1974 and January 5, 1975 to Dec. 28, 1975 (2 copies of this last bound book).

Crystal River News – this newspaper first was published about 1905. While the newspaper was based in Crystal River, the paper included a section on the news of Lecanto. The archives have several issues including the following: 1 issue-no date, 8 August 1905, Feb., Mar., Nov., 1911, Apr. 1912, May, July, Aug., Sep., Oct., Nov. 1914, Jan., Feb., Mar., Apr., May 1915, Jan. 1916, and Oct. 1924

Crystal River Herald - Only one edition - 1924

Phosphate Field— this newspaper was published, prior to the Citrus County Chronicle, in 1891 in Floral City. An annual subscription for the newspaper was a $1.00 per year. The editor & proprietor of the newspaper was a Mr. A.M. Williamson. We have only partial copies of two issues: 4/17, 4/24/1891.

5. Oral Histories. This collecting area contains 46 oral histories collected in 2005-2006 and transcribed. These oral histories document the early pioneer days into the 1950/1960s and include many World War II interviews. Other interviews have been done informally in the past.

6. Citrus County Historical Society Photographs. The photographs date from the late 1800s to present and are made up of more than 3,200 images in various formats, including originals, slides, prints and 4x5 and 35mm negatives. This collection documents the people, places and events of the County and including hundreds of subject areas.

7. Vertical Files, several filing cabinets. The vertical files contain materials primarily documenting local history including numerous files on the county's early pioneer families, people, places and events. Files contain a variety of materials including newspaper clippings, newsletters, brochures, pamphlets, documents, and photographs, Florida Master Site File forms for the historic structures and archaeological sites in Citrus County, and other items. See finding aid.
